

A circular portrait of Dr. Benedict Shing-bun Chan, a man with glasses wearing a blue shirt and a dark cardigan, with his arms crossed. The portrait is set against a white background and is framed by a green circular border. The overall design features a green grid pattern at the top and bottom, and a large green curved shape on the right side.

Dr Benedict Shing-bun Chan

Assistant Professor
Department of Religion and Philosophy
Hong Kong Baptist University

Biography

Dr Benedict Chan is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Religion and Philosophy and a Research Fellow in the Centre of Applied Ethics at Hong Kong Baptist University. From 2012 to 2015, he was an Assistant Professor in the Department of General Education at Hang Seng Management College. From 2011 to 2012, he was a Mellon Postdoctoral Fellow in Philosophy and Asian Studies at Tulane University. He received his PhD in the Philosophy Department from the University of Maryland, College Park in 2011. His Areas of Research Specialisation (AOS) include Social & Political Philosophy, Applied Ethics & Moral Philosophy, and Comparative Philosophy (Chinese & Western). He is also interested in Chinese Philosophy, Philosophy of Religion, Philosophy of Mind, and Critical Thinking & Logic.